

A woman is standing in a room, wearing an elaborate 18th-century costume. She has a large, dark, feathered hat with a crescent moon ornament. Her dress is dark with a wide white collar and a row of gold buttons down the front. She is holding a white cloth in her hands. In the background, there is a portrait of a man in a frame and a small framed picture on the wall. A red shoe is visible on the floor near her feet.
